

Certified sophisticated investor

As a certified sophisticated investor, you have:

- a written certificate signed within the last 36 months by a firm confirming you have been assessed by that firm as sufficiently knowledgeable to understand the risks associated with engaging in investment activity in non-mainstream pooled investments.