

Restricted investor

As a restricted investor you declare:

- in the twelve months preceding the date below, you have not invested more than 10% of your net assets in non-readily realisable securities; and
- undertake that in the twelve months following the date of the investment, you will not invest more than 10% of your net assets in non-readily realisable securities.

Net assets for these purposes do not include:

- the property which is my primary residence or any money raised through a loan secured on that property; or
- any rights of mine under a qualifying contract of insurance; or
- any benefits (in the form of pensions or otherwise) which are payable on the termination of my service or on my death or retirement and to which I am (or my dependants are), or may be, entitled; or
- any withdrawals from my pension savings (except where the withdrawals are used directly for income in retirement).
